Sub: Authorization on Orders and Trade Slips

I am / we are given to understand by DCPL that as per present stock exchange regulation, it is required that a member seek order instructions from its constituents in writing. Further, the member is required to provide order confirmation, modification, cancellation, and trade confirmation slips to its constitute. I / we assess that this exchange of written orders, besides practically inconveniencing me/us in my/our trading operations, especially while transacting over the telephone.

I/we hereby authorize DCPL to accept orders from me/ my authorize representative / us orally and through any other accepted mode of communications including emails etc., and I/ we further confirm that receipt of confirmation sheet or oral confirmation from the office of DCPL at the end of every trading day or contracts and bills from DCPL would be sufficient for me / us towards the confirmation of my / our orders placed and trades executed thereof. I/we shall not be requiring the order and trades slips and also agree to inform DCPL on any discrepancy observed in the contracts and bills issued to me/us within 24 hours of their receipt or such extended time permitted by DCPL. I/we take into consideration the fact that DCPL agrees to provide me/us with suitable documents to my/our complete satisfaction, while addressing any discrepancy notified.

I/we have read and understood the above contents.
