Sustaining above 11393 (Weekly Close) would allow for the upside momentum to remain intact.

Nifty 50 11589.10

WEEKLY OVERVIEW

7th September, 2018

Support: 11393, 11171 - 11069

Resistance: 11760, 13000

Last week, we had said that Weekly Close above 11171 would accelerate long-term up-move.

In July 2018, the Nifty registered a Monthly Close above its January 2018 high of 11171. This indicated resumption of its long term up-move.

After making the high of 11760, Nifty has formed a Bearish Engulfing pattern on the Weekly Chart which is a cause for concern in the near term.

However, at the low of 11393, the Nifty has bounced from the 23.6% Fibonacci retracement level of its up-move from 10417 placed at 11443 and has registered a Daily Close above the Daily Middle Bollinger Band. Hence, it is likely to revisit the high of 11760. A Weekly Close above the high of same would trigger continuation of the ongoing up-move.

The Nifty would then initially test the target placed around 13000 (261.8% Fibonacci retracement level of the January 2008 – October 2008 fall). Nevertheless, considering this historical behaviour, long term target for the Nifty is placed around 25000 (561.8% Fibonacci retracement level of the January 2008 – October 2008 fall is placed at 25311).

Sustaining above the low of 11393 on a Weekly Close basis would allow for the upside momentum to remain intact. Key support is placed in the area between 11171 & 11069 (January 2018 High and Weekly Closing Peak) on a Weekly Closing basis.

To summarize, sustaining above the low of 11393 on a Weekly Close basis would allow for the upside momentum to remain intact. A Weekly Close above the recent high of 11760 would trigger continuation of the ongoing up-move wherein the Nifty would initially test the target placed at 13000. Nevertheless, our long term targets for the Nifty around 25000. Key support is placed in the area between 11171 & 11069 on a Weekly Closing basis.
